

The IN2WORK program stretches across 22 states and is easily implemented at both the large state DOC and local municipal and county jails.

1,545

There are currently 1,545 students enrolled in the IN2WORK food and retail programs.

4,500+

Over the past 10 years, the I2W Program has more than 4,500 graduates successfully complete the program.

16

We have awarded 16 I2W scholarships to graduates of the program. Levels of study including bachelors, associates and technical degrees/certifications.

52

Today, there are 52 interns working in our Aramark kitchens - earning minimum wage while incarcerated.

19

Aramark has hired 19 graduates of the program once they have been released back to the community.

48,000+

The average number of hours I2W instructors spend educating and coaching our students each year.