We are proud of everything our teams are doing to support our local communities throughout this incredibly challenging year. While we won't be able to celebrate Aramark Building Community Day in person this year, we will continue to Care. Give. Do. We continue to work closely with our community partners to allocate Aramark Building Community Day funding where it is needed most. This includes donations of food, masks, supplies, and other resources.

Thanks to our Supply Chain team, we were able to provide 25,000 cloth masks to our partner, the Alliance for Strong Families and Communities, to share with their nationwide network of members. While we have suspended volunteer activities and group projects until further notice, we will still provide grants to support pandemic relief, food insecurity, or other community projects where there is demonstrated need.

We also encourage you to get involved in your local communities. Host an appropriately socially distanced donation drive with family, friends, and neighbors or make an online donation to an existing Aramark Building Community partner or your own favorite registered
CORRECTIONS MOVES FORWARD AS ONE IN FY '21

Earlier this summer, the Corrections team rallied together to set the course for FY '21, hosting AOP via Microsoft Teams. Drawing on their theme, “Forward as One in FY ’21,” they spent the day discussing diversity, sharing best practices developed during COVID, and adapting operational plans to finish the year strong and set up for future success.

CEO John Zillmer offered his thoughts on Aramark’s path forward and the impact programs like IN2WORK have had on our mission of enriching and nourishing lives. Each functional leader took time to recognize operators from across the business with awards for outstanding performance. Congratulations to this year’s winners:

Though the meeting format was vastly different this year, the team was in high spirits, remaining engaged and congratulating their peers on a job well done.
Last month, Aramark China hosted a webinar series titled Advanced Thinking of Hospital Logistic Service in the New Normal. Over 15,000 vice presidents and logistic directors from leading hospitals across China—including current and prospective clients—attended the three-day virtual event to share their experiences in the wake of the coronavirus pandemic. The forum received high praise from its participants for the valuable exchange of information and best practices that can be applied in managing any healthcare crisis.

Our client at Unity Point Health nominated Quincy Bland to be part of a group representing the health system on the Des Moines Partnership Diversity and Inclusion Council. The council supports and elevates a diverse, vibrant, and inclusive regional economy. Through education, promotion, and public awareness practices, the council strives to create a community where everyone has the opportunity to connect, live, learn, and thrive.
Danny Martinez was among a trio of team members from NorthShore University HealthSystem who recently joined a panel discussion, moderated by system President and CEO J.P. Gallagher. The group discussed the current state of race relations and shared their personal experiences. In this video, you can see Danny’s contributions to this important conversation about racial disparity and healthcare inequity.
