- Additional expenses may include transportation, parking, living expenses (lodging, meals, utilities, phone), business casual dress clothes, and slip-resistant shoes.

Healthcare, counseling, and financial aid are not provided by the program.

Choosing the Aramark Dietetic Internship is an affordable investment in your future!

There are two opportunities to support financial accessibility when choosing the Aramark Dietetic Internship.

1. Nourish ERG Scholarship Opportunity!

To help make the Aramark Dietetic Internship more financially accessible, the Nourish Employee Resource Group (ERG) awards six scholarships annually of $3,000 each. Scholarship funds are applied directly to internship tuition, reducing the financial burden for selected interns.

Scholarships Available

- Fall Cohort: 4 scholarships ($3,000 each)
- Spring Cohort: 2 scholarships ($3,000 each)

Information about the application process will be provided by the Nourish ERG following onboarding to the internship program.

At Aramark, ERGs are voluntary, employee-led groups made up of individuals with common interests, backgrounds, or demographic factors. Each ERG is open to all Aramark employees regardless of their career background, and provides opportunities for networking, outreach, professional development, and more.

Nourish ERG brings together people who care deeply about human health, environmental well-being, and community vitality. Through the guidance of nutrition experts, Nourish inspires healthier lifestyles and promotes a culture of wellness that benefits people, the planet, and the places we call home.

These scholarships are made possible through the support of:

- Aramark Collegiate Hospitality
- Aramark Correctional Services
- Aramark Healthcare+
- Aramark SeniorLIFE+
- Aramark Student Nutrition
- Aramark Workplace Experience Group

Together with Nourish ERG, these business units demonstrate a shared commitment to investing in the next generation of dietetics professionals.
