

David Kim
President & CEO
Aramark Korea

David Kim is President and CEO of Aramark Korea, where he leads the company's strategy and operations across the Korean market. Since his appointment in 2024, he has focused on accelerating growth, strengthening service delivery, and positioning the business for long-term success.

Drawing on extensive consumer-focused leadership experience, David has led the expansion of the business into new growth areas, including Concessions and Sports & Entertainment, while building on Aramark Korea's strong foundations in institutional catering.

David brings more than two decades of leadership experience across global consumer and luxury brands. Prior to joining Aramark, he held senior leadership roles at The Estée Lauder Companies in Japan and L'Oréal Korea. He also serves on the Board of the American Chamber of Commerce in Korea. David holds an MBA from Hanyang University.
