

Tom Neville
President & CEO
Aramark Ireland

Tom Neville is President and CEO of Aramark Ireland, leading the strategic and operational performance of the company's food and facilities management services across the country. His focus is on delivering profitable growth, operational excellence, and continued innovation, while upholding the high standards of the Aramark brand.

Tom brings strong financial and operational leadership experience, having previously served as Chief Financial Officer for Aramark Northern Europe, where he played a key role in guiding financial strategy and performance across complex organizations.

As CEO and President, Tom is committed to building a culture that supports colleagues, encourages collaboration, and drives excellence. His leadership emphasizes sustainable growth, innovation, and long-term value creation for clients, consumers, and teams.

Connect with us!