

Brisbane Vaillancourt

President & CEO

Aramark Student Nutrition

Brisbane leads Aramark Student Nutrition with a mission to reimagine school dining and empower student wellness. Bris, as she is commonly known, joined Aramark in 2016 and in her roles in Workplace Experience Group and Collegiate Hospitality, has consistently demonstrated a strong commitment to student well-being, nutrition innovation, and operational excellence.

As a leader in Collegiate Hospitality, where she served the last four years as Regional Vice President for the Northeast Region, and in every role Workplace Hospitality, Bris has brought a passion for supporting students and customers to her purpose-driven approach.

Her 25-plus-year career in the industry began as a server at a restaurant chain, and twelve years later she was their Vice President of Operations. At Aramark, she has served at almost every level of leadership, led teams, collaborated with clients, and championed her employees.

She holds a Bachelor of Science from Central Connecticut State University.

Connect with us!