

Erin Moshier

Chief Growth Officer
Aramark Refreshments

Erin leads growth for Aramark Refreshments, driving new business and deepening client partnerships across their local and national portfolios. With more than a decade at Aramark and a breadth of leadership experience, she is energized by Refreshments' approach to innovation and versatility, serving clients from boardroom to break room, and across collegiate, healthcare, sports, and destination environments.

Erin leverages a data-driven strategy and a consultative approach to unlock growth and deliver exceptional results, and she is passionate about creating meaningful impact through smart, scalable solutions that help clients thrive in any setting. Erin actively mentors emerging talent and helps develop leaders across Aramark and in her community. She serves on the NAMA Education Committee, helping shape the future of learning and growth in the convenience services industry.

Connect with us!