

Gary Crompton
President & CEO
Aramark Workplace Experience
Group

Gary Crompton leads Aramark's Workplace Experience Group (WXG), which includes Workplace Hospitality, LifeWorks Restaurant Group, Aramark Refreshments, and Salute Hospitality. With more than 30 years in foodservice and hospitality, Gary brings a chef's mindset and a leader's vision to experience-driven workplace solutions.

Since joining Aramark in 1991, Gary has held senior roles across operations and business development, including seven years leading growth initiatives as Global Director of Business Development and Vice President of Growth. He served as President of Aramark Healthcare for four years before rejoining WXG, and since returning he has founded LifeWorks Restaurant Group and Salute Hospitality, a brand dedicated to serving military communities, and launched a joint venture with Chef Daniel Boulud to create Cuisine Boulud New York.

He champions social responsibility and talent development as executive sponsor of Nourish, Aramark's ERG for nutrition professionals. He is a graduate of Johnson & Wales University and recently received the prestigious IFMA Silver Plate Award for his industry leadership.

Connect with us!