

Justin Crews
Chief Growth Officer
Aramark Student Nutrition

Justin leads growth for Aramark Student Nutrition. He focuses on strengthening partnerships with school districts nationwide. His strategic leadership ensures every collaboration enhances the student experience, drives client success, and supports the mission of Student Nutrition to nourish the next generation and power their potential, transforming school lunches into delicious experiences.

With prior roles in operations and district management, he brings deep insight into client needs and scalable solutions. Justin connects clients with industry-leading technology, logistics, and culinary expertise.

He holds a bachelor's degree from North Carolina State University and an MBA from Cleveland State University.

Connect with us!