

Tim Barttrum
President and CEO
Aramark Correctional Services

Tim Barttrum brings over 30 years of experience to Aramark Correctional Services, where he leads with a mission-driven approach focused on innovation, rehabilitation, and community impact. Under his leadership, Aramark Corrections has more than doubled in size.

Tim began his career in community corrections, where he developed Ready for Life, a reentry model supporting incarcerated individuals. After joining Aramark Correctional Services, Tim served as Vice President of Growth, where he drove record-setting client retention, introduced tailored food and commissary services, and was recognized for his leadership in growth.

Tim focuses on enhancing outcomes for clients and communities by fostering a culture of creative problem-solving and strategic partnership. He is actively involved with industry organizations, including the National Sheriff's Association, where he serves on the IGNITE board.

Tim attended Baptist Bible College. His hospitality-centered vision continues to shape the future of correctional services.

Connect with us!