

GUNNAR STEDEN

EXECUTIVE CHEF
DENVER, CO

Chef Gunnar Steden is a French-trained chef from Freudenberg, Germany. He received his culinary degree from BBS Betzdorf-Kirchen and has worked in Europe, Australia, and the US.

Chef Gunnar has had an extensive culinary career, including working at numerous Michelin Star and Gault Millau-awarded restaurants. He also played a key role in establishing and opening up several hotels with Hyatt Hotels. Before joining Aramark, Chef Gunnar served as Executive Chef for Legends Hospitality at One World Trade Center in New York City.

Chef Gunnar currently sits as Senior Executive Chef Denver District, based out of Empower Field at Mile High (home of the Denver Broncos). He also oversees Red Rocks Amphitheatre; Coors Field (home of the Colorado Rockies), Fiddlers Green Amphitheatre, and First Bank Arena.

Chef Steden received the RESILIENCE Award and Chameleon Award with Aramark in 2021 and 2022, as well as Chef of the Year with Legends Hospitality in 2019. His ability to create unforgettable experiences for guests through food demonstrates his passion for cooking and his dedication to his craft.
