

Kelly Barry

Vice President, Marketing

Kelly leads Marketing for Aramark Healthcare+. She is a seasoned marketer who is currently responsible for overall brand health & the strategic implementation of a multi-channel product portfolio to drive critical business initiatives, including new & base business growth, customer retention and brand initiatives. She has been with Aramark since 2007 when she started as a Promotions Manager. Since then she has held various progressive roles, which include Food and Beverage Development Manager, Marketing Senior Manager, Retail Channel Growth Director, North American Retail Product Director, and Field Marketing Vice President. Prior to Aramark, Kelly has a proven track record & deep level of experience across critical business segments in the food marketing and category development sectors (manufacturer, supplier, distributor, provider & educator) and diverse organizations including Global Fortune 100.